[a] Appointed March 29, 1865, to rank from same date, but was confirmed by the Senate to rank from April 2, 1865.

Number of general officers in service during the Civil War, 1861–1865: Lieutenant-generals, 1; major-generals, 131; brigadier-generals, 446; total, 578.

II. OFFICERS BREVETTED AS MAJOR-GENERAL OR BRIGADIER-GENERAL FOR SERVICES RENDERED DURING THE CIVIL WAR, 1861–1865, WITH DATE OF RANK.

NOTE.—At the beginning of the Civil War, existing laws provided for the conferring of brevets upon officers of the Regular Army, but there was no law authorizing their bestowal upon officers of the volunteer forces called into service. However, on March 3, 1863, an act was passed which authorized the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, "to confer brevet rank upon such commissioned officers of the volunteer and other forces in the United States service as have been, or may hereafter be, distinguished by gallant actions or meritorious conduct" (12 Stat. L., 758). Again, on March 2, 1867, an act was passed authorizing the President, with the advice and consent of the Senate, "to confer brevet rank on officers of the Army of the United States on account of gallant, meritorious, or faithful conduct in the volunteer service prior to appointment in said Army of the United States" (14 Stat. L., 517). Although conferred for services rendered during the period of the Civil War as officers of volunteers, the appointments made under this act dated from its passage, March 2, 1867.
